

How To Use

This book is designed to be used with The Great Editing Adventure series Volume II (Teacher Book). For complete instructions, see pages ii and iii of that book.

Page 2 of this book is a blank lined page. You may photocopy this page for your students' use or use lined notebook paper.

Vocabulary words, circled in the “blackboard” section of each lesson in which they appear, are also found at the bottom of the corresponding lesson, with room for your student to write the word's definition.

A Thesaurus should be available for students to locate synonyms for any underlined words. Synonyms for these words are provided in the Teacher Book.

It is our sincere hope that you and your student thoroughly enjoy these Great Editing Adventures!

The Music Test

Lesson 1

As the tests was being past out by the Music teacher, Amanda felt a not of fear churn in her stomach

Lesson 2

she longed for the much coveted grade of one hundred percent coveted -

Lesson 3

She had listened attentively throughout the precedeing weeks of instruction and she diligently studied her notes the previous night. Now, her memory would be tested.

diligently -